Title: Know God and Be Satisfied

Text: Psalm 63

We were made to be satisfied but nothing we could accumulate could ever fill this need. But God fulfills our need to be satisfied. So how do we make God the center of our satisfaction?

Sermon Specific

1. Humans long to be satisfied. Name a time when you longed for something but when you got it you realized it didn't satisfy you.
2. Knowing about God and knowing God are not the same thing. Name the differences and explain why both are important for achieving spiritual satisfaction.
3. No religion or self-help guru ever recommends filling our lives with stuff in order to find happiness. But this is a trap we fall into over and over again. Why is this path so tempting?
4. Spending time with God is the way we get to know God. How do you spend time with God? Is there a habit or discipline you wish you could add to know God better?
5. Sometimes it can be difficult to desire knowing God. Name the things that get in the way of knowing God.
